Lucille Love, The Girl of Mystery

Series No. 8

No sooner does Lucille slide among the boxes on the wharf than she hears Loubeque's voice. An officer of the Chinese police is questioning him concerning the whereabouts of Lucille. Her overt act in protecting her life against a Chinese woman has been construed as murder, and she is confronted by this new danger. Even while Loubeque is talking with the policeman, he looks around the corner of the boxes and sees Lucille. He is surprised by her former situation, and out of sheer pity for her he throws the policeman of the trail.

Loubeque then goes aboard the ship, and it was said—no, however, before Lucille has stolen into the hold and found a hiding place. Again Loubeque is touched by pity for the girl, and he would a safer into the hold that he may discover Lucille, and that she may not wait for the necessities of existence. The girl is discovered and taken before the captain. The good old man takes on an air of mock seriousness, and orders her punishment shall consist in sailing as his cabin boy during the voyage.

The documents of which Lucille is in search are in the possession of Loubeque. One day while he is in his stateroom, he catches sight of Lucille springing out through a porthole. Surprising her purpose, Loubeque takes the documents from his pocket, places them in a scarf and hides the scarf under a cushion. The face of Lucille disappears from the porthole. The man now removes the genuine documents from the scarf and places a package of blank papers in their place.

As a result, when Lucille steals into the stateroom, she falls into Loubeque's trap. She steals the blank papers, and when she discovers Loubeque's trick, her anger is only equalled by her elation. But two can play at the same game. The girl holds the papers signed by Loubeque, which mark him as a smuggler of contraband arms into China. The international spy discovers the girl in his stateroom. He proposes to her that she give him the papers in exchange for the documents which will save her from prison. She agrees and each hands the other a package of blank papers. It is still a mark to mark race of wit and cunning until Loubeque makes visible through a window what transpires when the girl arrives at San Francisco. Lucille appeals to the captain for aid and describes her adventures to him. The captain calls Loubeque for an explanation of his conduct, and Loubeque tells the captain that she is innocent. Her strange story partly corroborates this, and the captain is not decided in the matter until the last arrest at San Francisco. Despite the captain's promises, Loubeque's agents press around Lucille at the gangplank and about her. She is whisked away in a taxi cab in a city where she has no friends.

Another Victory For The Germans

A very interesting game of hockey was played on the new Frank rink on Tuesday night light between teams picked from the guest roll at the Blairmore hotel. The teams lined up as follows:

Out-Throws:

Dennis Van Klink Fleming, point.
Peter Van Buren Corrieux, centre.
Halprie Heidenburg Thompson, cover point.

Joseph Frans Josef Tompkins, right wing.
Godfrey Van Koster Lake, left wing.
Norman Kaiser Macneley, rover.
Eustace Leger Jery, goal.

High-Binders:

Coey Stunee Jones, point.
Charles Van Molke Ritchie, centre.
Joseph Kitchener Gillis, cover point.
Frank Pau Fitzgerald, rover.
William John McLean, right wing.
Dennis Sean Hughes Delaney, left wing.
Lanning Churchill Putnam, goal.

Signor Owen de Cooney looked after the teams and lineups, and assisted Dr. H. Marquage.

Woodrow Wilson Peyer acted as referee while no names were introduced were Misses O. U. K.M. Wilhelmina Calkins, I. Collier and Neista Thompson. Liquid dispatcher, Don Beach.

This game was for the famous Stanley cup, and both teams started out with full intention of winning that precious trophy. Putnam filled a place between the goal posts in a stalwart manner, and it could be easily noticed the superiority of the temperate individual—him!

The game resulted in the "Out-Throws" favor by a score of 2 to 5, according to the referee's counting, but as the latter is backward in figures, the game has been protested, for according to unlikers the scoring was done in this manner—Molke Jones 1, Putnam 1 for the high-binders; Corrieux 1, Macneley 2, Leger, Tompkins 3, for the out-throw.

McLean had the misfortune to intentionally trip a German, for which he paid an honorable penalty loss the customary mutilation of both hands. For hitting Churchill's endgame. Van Buren was found to surreptitiously lay out. Other penalties were quite in accord with modern warfare. Putnam was surprisingly hit through the nose with a stick. Fertilization and unfilled mud during a wild invasion of the Germans.

The next game is to be played on

Local and General

Coal shipping operations from the West Canadian Collieries Green Hill mine commenced this week.

Macleod has had three mysterious fires during the past few weeks, supposed to be the work of a firebug.

800 miners were entombed by an explosion which occurred in a coal mine at Fukuoka, Japan, on December 15th.

Roger Haddock came in from Paris on Friday last to assist during Christmas week at The Blairmore Trading Co's.

M. Rossi and Mrs. J. P. Rudd went to Calgary on Monday, where they attended a sitting of the licensing commissioners on Tuesday.

Alderman Joseph Clark, of Edmonton, was arrested on Saturday morning on charges of criminal conspiracy in connection with salubrious.

The French-Putnam Temperance Syndicate has just been formed for the purpose of co-operating with the provincial temperance forces in putting down booze.

A school holiday was proclaimed at Gloucester on December 11th, by Mayor Harrington, in recognition of the British navy victory off the Falkland Islands.

It is hoped that the incoming school board will realize the necessity of adopting the system of technical schools, which are at present working so favorably in other towns throughout the province.

We have received 1915 calendars from R. P. McKean, Jeweller, Coleman, Alberta. Blairmore, Blairmore Hardware Co., and the Royal Bank of Canada, all of which are of attractive designs.

S. J. Sargent, of Blairmore, and Fred Padgett, of Bellevue, have received letters recovered from the wrecked Empress of Ireland. Both letters are in a remarkable state of preservation, the writing not in the least blurred.

Lieutenant Wallace Graham Chambers, Seaforth Highlanders, Canada, only son of the late W. W. Chambers, Vancouver, was married recently at Dulwich, England, to Estrella Cecilia, fourth daughter of J. J. G. Fergus, of Dulwich— "Widow more," in Calgary Herald.

Pass Hockey League Formed

A meeting was held at the Blairmore hotel on Monday night for the purpose of forming the new Pass Hockey League for the season of 1914-15. Delegates were present from Frank, Coleman and Bellevue. The officers elected for the ensuing year were: President A. L. Brain, Frank; Vice-President B. P. McKean, Coleman; Secretary Treasurer Rev. F. L. Cook, Bellevue. It was decided to try and form a district of the A.A.H.A., with three teams, Coleman, Bellevue and a team from Frank and Blairmore combined. It will be necessary for each club to secure amateur cards for their different players, and in this way it is hoped to put hockey on much sounder basis than it has been during the past two or three seasons. The executive will meet in the course of a few days to draw up a schedule.

Tuesday night next, the winner of which will challenge the Compositus star team.

Corrieux and Macneley have amazing natural ability as hockey players. Both these boys are come-backs. Ottawa and Ponoka are negotiating for Corrieux. Macneley has already signed with Midnapore. Ritchie comes from a family of athletes, is a cousin of Willie Ritchie the boxer, an uncle of Len Ritchie the baseballer and a perfect model of everything pertaining to hockey. Fleming and Jones are going for point men, but are not yet considered good brand of hockey. Dr. Marquage and the house have been appointed referees through the league. Dr. Hogen found it necessary to decline the appointment owing to being called away to Calgary.

Frank Happenings

Tom Longworth was in Bellevue on Wednesday.

A. Wadman, of Burma, was in town on Monday.

W. Phillips, president of District 18, U. M. W. of A., was in town this week.

B. Barry, an old-timer around the Pass, was down from Bellevue on Monday.

Frank and Bellevue will play an exchange game at Bellevue on Christmas afternoon.

Fred Harvey left for Lethbridge Thursday morning, where he will spend Christmas.

J. Cardie, R. Levitt, J. Clarke and J. Barwick, of Bellevue, were in town on Monday on business.

Mrs. Thomas left for Calgary on Thursday morning and will spend Xmas there with her daughter Lillian.

H. D. McKay, former principal of the Frank public school, arrived in town early this week to spend the Christmas holidays.

The public school closed this week for the holidays, and the teaching staff will go to distant points to spend the vacation with friends.

"Shanty" and "Captain" are busy preparing their Xmas this week. The captain says that plain will be good enough for them. New calendars are now welcome.

Fred Padgett was down from Bellevue this week and reports having received a souvenir in the shape of a letter recovered from the ill-fated Empress of Ireland.

Mr. Baker principal of the local school for the past year, has resigned his position and intends taking up further studies. He left for Ponoka on Thursday morning.

Marsh had his "recruits" out for a trial this week, in preparation for a match with the "Gut-throats" or "Highlanders." A couple of new recruits, Jeppon and Watson, were tried out and proved very satisfactory.

Frank's hockey team journeyed to Bellevue on Friday evening last to play a return game. Frank had the assistance of W. Goddard, W. Boyd and W. Turner, of Blairmore, which proved to be a step in the right direction towards the team, holding their own in future. The game was evenly contested and resulted in a draw, 3 to 3.

CALIFORNIA WOMAN SERIOUSLY ALARMED

"A short time ago I contracted a severe cold which settled on my lungs and caused me a great deal of annoyance. I would have been seriously ill, and my lungs were so sore that I was unable to breathe. I was alarmed. A friend recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, saying she had used it for years. I bought a bottle and it relieved my cough the first night, and in a week I was rid of the cold and soreness of my lungs." writes Miss Marie Gortler Sartelle, Cal. For sale by all druggists.

Joe McHagg, our repairer with Mr. Sherring, of the C.P.R., met with a bad accident on Saturday last. He and Mr. Sherring were carrying a coupling when Joe slipped off a rail, the coupling falling on his leg, breaking it across the ankle. Dr. Mackay attended to his injuries and McHagg was sent to the C.P.R. hospital at Macleod by the evening train. We hope for him a speedy recovery.

HOW TO BANISH THE DOCTORS

A prominent New York physician says, "If it were not for the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, I should have to wait for it to develop into pneumonia, but treat it at once. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is intended especially for coughs and colds, and has won a wide reputation by its cures of these diseases. It is most effective and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all druggists."

We venture to state that the longest name in Canada is "J. D. S. Barrett," which through the medium of Chamberlain's Pills advertisement extends from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

Frank Hockeylest In Demand

The following message received from Vancouver speaks well for the qualifications of one of Frank's hockey experts:

December 23, 1914.
Manager Blairmore Hotel Hockey Team, Blairmore, Alberta.
An amusing representative to Frank to negotiate for player J. J. Tompkins. My man has authority to go limit. Do not close and other people must be advised.
LESTER PATRICK.

M. Rossi returned from Calgary on Thursday morning.

Fit His Case EXACTLY

"When father was sick about six years ago he read an advertisement of Chamberlain's Tablets in the papers that fit his case exactly," writes Miss Margaret Campbell of Ft. Smith, Ark. "I purchased a box of them and he has not been sick since. His liver has stomach trouble and was also benefited by them." For sale by all druggists.
